

I wish there was a way
I could help Regina High School grow financially without short changing my families needs...

I want to see Regina's Franciscan mission flourish well into the future, but I also want to leave my family a proud legacy.

I wonder if it's possible to do both?

Yes it is, and there's no better time like the present to fulfill your charitable wishes.

Leaving a legacy for your family and your favorite charity is like a wish come true. It can become reality at any age and you don't have to be a millionaire to do so. There are ways to provide a gift to your charity without depleting your retirement nest egg or reducing your children's inheritance.

"I purchased a life insurance policy as the insured, with the owner and beneficiary being Regina. I gifted the premium dollars to the school allowing them to pay the policy, and I received the charitable gift tax deductions." L. Minello

*There are many options including some with tax benefits, lifetime income, and more. Call Mary Ann Goll,
