

Honoring Youth Leadership

On Sunday, April 26, several Regina Students were honored with Timothy Awards for volunteering. The Timothy Awards are sponsored by the Catholic Youth Ministries of the Blue Water, Central Macomb, and North Macomb Vicariates. This award recognizes High School teens for Leadership, Christian Service and commitment to any of the following: parish, family, civic community and school community. No sport or academic accomplishments other than leadership roles are considered. These Students were nominated by their home parish, St. Peter in Mount Clemens. The girls selected for this honor are active in the parish, community, and their school community.. They take an active leadership role in Youth Group, Choir, Right to Life, Vacation Bible School, and Religious Education. They are also active in their schools, with Band, Campus Ministry, and Sports Team Captains. They are our future Church, and we are Blessed. Our 2009 Timothy Award Recipients are
